

Aaron J Galipeau

6450 Ambrosia Dr #5101 • San Diego, CA 92124
2194779289 • aarongalipeau@gmail.com

SUMMARY

Detail oriented and energetic bartender with solid professional military background accompanied by an all market bartending capability. Adept at handling stressful and unpleasant situations with complete courtesy and professionalism. A team-oriented individual who thrives in high-pressure work environments.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree, Economics (Anticipated completion 2019)

San Diego State University, San Diego, CA

San Diego Bartending School (June 2017)

Graduation Certificate with Honors (2016)

Officer Candidate School, Quantico, VA

Associate's Degree, General Studies (2015)

Central Texas College, Killeen, TX

SKILLS

Bartending, Customer Service, CPR for the Professional Rescuer, Coaching/Counseling, Demonstrations/Simulations, Leadership, Management/Supervision, Digital Communications, Military Experience, Motivational Techniques, Technical Support, Training, Serving, Hosting

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Server (April 2017 – June 2017)

The Foolish Frog St Helena, SC

- Provide friendly, fast, and helpful customer service through the consistent practice and delivery of outstanding customer service to all guests and team members.
- Promptly and accurately take beverage and food orders, transmit orders to kitchen staff and serve food items to guests.
- Complete sales to customers while including: receiving, correctly counting back correct change, processing transactions, and operating a POS system.
- Provide table service to customers according to Department of Health standards.
- Follow appropriate food handling procedures to ensure safe, quality products.
- Maintain cleanliness/appearance of assigned areas, stock/restock server stations, and complete side duties according to department standards.
- Participate as a team member with all servers, bussers, hosts, supervisors, and kitchen staff in maintaining a smooth and efficient operation.
- Perform all job duties in a safe and responsible manner.
- Perform other job related and compatible duties as assigned.

Water Safety/Survival Instructor (0918) (2013 - 2017)

United States Marine Corps (Grade E-6) MCRD Parris Island, SC

- Maintain statistics and records of all water survival qualifications.
- Maintain permanent personnel training rosters, and complete all weekly qualification reports ensuring qualifications are forwarded to appropriate agencies.
- Supervise the initial and sustainment training conducted by Marine Corps Instructors of Water Survival.
- Follow and maintain physical training regiment for Instructor Water Survival students. - Instruct and supervise the qualification of recruits and Marines to the highest qualification possible.
- Instruct and demonstrate advanced first aid for inherently dangerous aquatic environment that includes spinal management and American Red Cross CPR for the professional rescuer.
- Ensure the overall safety of recruits and Marines during all water survival training.
- Serve as a Academic Advisor and Physical Training Instructor for Water Survival Instructor courses.

Drill Instructor (0911) (2013 - 2016)

United States Marine Corps (Grade E-6) MCRD Parris Island, SC

- Responsible for the conduct of training, health, safety, and welfare of all Marines and recruits associated with training.
- Responsible for the overall performance, proficiency, and conduct of the recruit training platoon.
- Teach, mentor, and counsel Marines and recruits within the scope of the recruit training in the company.
- Responsible for the training, supervision, and conduct of drill instructors in the platoon.
- Responsible for the timeliness and correctness of all administrative matters within the platoon.
- Provide the visible example of personal and professional conduct to Marines and recruits. - Responsible for ensuring that all recruits are basically trained Marines upon completion of recruit training.
- To perform the duties of a Group leader during the Enlisted Marine Corps Culminating Event.

Ground Communications Radio Repairer (2841) (2007 - 2013)

United States Marine Corps (Grade E-1 - E-5) Camp Pendleton, CA

- Conduct analysis and create courses of action allowing command staff to generate strategic and tactical command and control capabilities.
- Responsible to the Commanding Officer for all matters of communications within the company.
- Responsible for personnel administration to include required counseling and recommendations on the quarterly reports for all assigned Marines.
- Responsible for the management, safety, and security of all controlled cryptographic items (CCI) as an Electronic Key Management Systems (EKMS) controller.
- Conduct and supervise training sessions for all employed communications assets.
- Supervise maintenance management for all communications assets.
- Train and develop all required Marines in proficiently employing and maintaining all communications assets.

MARINE CORPS ACHIEVEMENT

Navy & Marine Corps Achievement Medal (1st Award) (2010) - Achievement in bringing the combat readiness of Combat Assault Battalion in Okinawa, Japan from 8% to 96%

Navy & Marine Corps Achievement Medal (2nd Award) (2016) - Achievement as a leader of Marines and recruits while aboard Marine Corps Recruit Depot Parris Island, South Carolina

Drill Instructor Ribbon – Awarded for successful completion of tour as a United States Marine Corps Drill Instructor

Good Conduct Medal – Awarded three times consecutively for outstanding, faithful service to our nation

OTHER EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

Job Availability Date: June 29, 2017

Citizenship: United States Citizen

Security Clearance: Active Secret

References available upon request